

With more than 20 years of legal experience, Anabel Rosa has practiced in the areas of personal injury, civil rights, employment discrimination and sexual harassment.

She is admitted to the practice of law in the states of New York, New Jersey, North Carolina and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

In addition to her legal work, Anabel is an active member of the Durham community chairing the City of Durham's Mayor's Hispanic-Latino Committee. She was recently appointed to the Governor's Hispanic/Latino Advisory Council.

Anabel was a 2018 Triangle Business Journal Women in Business Award Recipient.